Plainfield Park District Offering Free Esports Rocket League Starting May 9

Plainfield Park District is offering an opportunity for players of all ages to participate in a FREE 3 v 3 esports Rocket League competition this spring in partnership with GGLeagues, a recreational esports league based in Chicago.

Registration is open thru May 1 at 3pm and is free for this introductory session through the Park District's website, <http://ow.ly/Eza250znEuE>

Play starts at 2:00 p.m. on Saturday, May 9 and will take place at the same time each Saturday through June 6th. Playoffs are scheduled for June 6th from 2:00-5:00 p.m.

Rocket League is a video soccer game held in a virtual stadium featuring rocket-powered cars playing in a challenging, fast-paced soccer contest with elements of a demolition derby.

Participants in the Park District league may form a team or register solo for some friendly online competition from home. Four weeks of play will conclude with playoffs in week four.

Gamers will be placed in one of three divisions depending on skill level, regardless of age:

Division A: This is the most competitive level league. Players can be at any skill level.

Division B: This the medium level league. Players must be at the gold or platinum skill level; players higher than platinum are not eligible for this division.

Division C: This level is the most beginner-friendly league. Players must be at gold skill level or below to be eligible.

Register now through the Plainfield Park District website, <http://ow.ly/Eza250znEuE>.
